

Grant Funded Development Training

You could claim up to £1500 worth of Development and Training for just £500 with Mancroft International

Many people are just not aware of a special grant funding opportunity currently available through support from the Learning and Skills Council. This could entitle your organisation to up to £1500 worth of high-quality Leadership and Management training for just £500.

Mancroft International has been approved to offer this grant funding to Directors and Senior Managers. If you want to benefit from this and find out if you qualify please read on.

To be eligible for this funding:

- You are a Managing Director/Director/Senior Manager
- Your organisation employs between 5-249 staff and be based in the East of England
- You must not have had any other grant funding through this scheme since October 2007

Evidence proves that strong and stable organisations are led by experienced and passionate decision makers. What plans do you have in place to ensure you continue to build and expand your knowledge and become even better as a leader? Our programmes focus on key areas of professional development helping you to develop a highly effective thinking style that can liberate greater performance in you and output in your people. At a personal level we help you increase self-motivation, develop a clarity of thinking and increase your focus. You will also understand the real causes of stress and how to lead more effectively with a positive self image.

For over 24 years Mancroft International has led the way in Professional Development Programmes and won great acclaim for 'The Winning Edge'. Experienced by over 120,000 people across 12 countries worldwide, this dynamic and powerful development programme has helped to transform organisations and the people that drive them. Through access to government funding you now have a unique opportunity to benefit from this and claim up to £1000 of training support. See the full Winning Edge brochure and speak to one of our Accredited and Licensed Mancroft Associates for full details on entitlement.
