

Ian Herrett

Trade Director at B&Q PLC

“Richard and "Winning Edge" has had a big impact on me and everyone in B&Q that has taken part in Richard's courses. "Simply first class" doesn't really do justice to Richard's delivery style, incredibly thought provoking and engaging content, and the personal impact it has on you both during and after the experience. Without doubt the most impactful course I have attended in all of my retail career. I highly recommend Richard and his associates, and have now attended the course five times in various guises over the years - it gets better every time.”
