

Jenny Eaton

Jenny is a highly experienced facilitator, with specialisms in personal development, enterprise and employment. She has devised and delivered a number of successful programmes, and has worked with a wide range of organisations and clients. Her work includes running an award-winning women's enterprise project, developing and delivering career and back to work projects, working with artists and craftspeople to help them turn their hobby into a profitable business.

Jenny set up her first business when she was 25, and has since run businesses in the areas of retail, catering, training and community regeneration. She has an Open University degree in Literature, which she gained over 6 years whilst having her children and working part-time. She is also a qualified teacher and business advisor.

Jenny is a passionate advocate of The Winning Edge programme as she has seen first-hand, the incredible and very positive benefits that the principles can have on people. She's a great believer that it's never too late to make the changes that will lead you toward the life you wish for.
