

Melanie Lisney

Following service as an officer in the Royal Navy, Melanie worked in the voluntary sector as a Citizens Advice Bureau manager before recalibrating her career to become a Management Development Consultant in 1998.

As an adult learner, she gained an insight to the value of life-long learning. With certification as an Adult and Further Education Teacher and of the Institute of Leadership and Management, Melanie maintains a fresh, progressive approach to learning.

Fascinated by interpersonal processes, Melanie specialises in the behavioural of Management Development and is an enthusiastic, articulate ambassador for the Winning Edge.

Providing services a wide range of organisations, including manufacturing, technical, local government, voluntary, tourism & leisure, civil service and, she appreciates of the of success-oriented attitudes and personal responsibility in the workplace, whatever the sector.

When not working around the UK, Melanie lives in Gloucestershire. She regularly affirms The Winning Edge principles, especially as she supports her son (British Indoor Rowing Champion) on his journey to the 2008 Olympics!

Learning & Development Solutions with

Mancroft International